

Journey Class

A gathering of (mostly) young (mostly) professionals with school-age children. The class is shepherded by member-leaders who present each week's Scripture passage with historical and theological background, followed by lively discussions on its relevance and application in our daily lives. Teachers rotate on a monthly basis. This class meets in room 304 on the 3rd Floor.

Conundrum Class

This adult Bible study is what its name implies—a place to wrestle with the difficult questions of faith. Led by Brian Inman and Bill Davies, this group meets in the Dining Room located on the Ground Floor. Although many (maybe most) of the co-ed group have retired, all ages are welcome.

Builders Class

A co-ed class who enjoy being together, supporting each other, and learning how the Bible applies to their lives in the 21st century. This group meets in room 302 on the 3rd floor.

YAGO (Young Adults Getting Older)

This co-ed class consists mostly of adults entering retirement. The class hosts spirited discussions about Scripture and life. John McClellan, Vicki Gee, Jana Weidemann and Roger Goss rotate in teaching and facilitating discussions. They meet room 303 on the 3rd floor.

Dean's List Class

A caring fellowship of Believers that gathers to study of the Bible and seeks to understand the Scriptures historically, and also their meaning for our lives today. Varying viewpoints are respected with open and honest discussion and the sharing of life experiences. Prayer for each other is central to the care this class offers as they seek to follow Jesus. Anne Vaughn teaches this co-ed class Sunday at 9:45 a.m. in the Community Room, located on the Ground Floor.

Coffee & Conversations

This class seeks to provide a place for college students and young adults to ground their lives through Scripture with the support of faithful friends. John and Lee Ann Head teach this class in room 310 on the 3rd floor.

O.M. Cates Class

This class is comprised of mostly retired men who use the lessons of the past to understand the challenges of the present by studying the Bible, sharing quality fellowship, and by reaching out to those in need of care and a redemptive community.

This class is taught by Earl Tillman and Pete O'Callaghan and meets in the Conference Room on the ground floor.

The Joy Class

The Joy Class consists of senior ladies who are definitely young at heart. Their life experiences are varied and diverse, but their love for their Lord, their church, and each other brings them together in a delightful way. Nancy Ratcliffe teaches this class, and there is never a lack of lively discussion and sharing in this group. They meet in room 240 adjacent to the elevator on the 2nd floor.

Chapel Class

The Chapel Class meets in the Chapel-considered by some to be the BEST location. Openness, laughter, and lively discussion of scripture are embraced. Andy Davis, Lynn Dempsey, Bob Hortman and Wade Monk rotate teaching, which begins at 10:00 a.m. Sunday to accommodate those who serve early in other areas.

The Jewels Class

The Jewels Class meets in Room 306, on the 3rd floor of our Education Building, and consists of women of all ages and life stages. This class fluctuates between lecture style and discussion style Bible study. They begin promptly at 9:45am so that choir members can be on time for practice. They participate in various fellowship and missions activities as a class.

New Young Adult Bible Study Class

A welcoming and engaging space for young adults & young families to grow in faith, build community, and explore how Scripture speaks to everyday life. Each week through Bible Study we have open discussion and explore practical applications for navigating work, relationships, and purpose through a Christ-centered lens. Whether you're newly starting your career, a young family, or just figuring life out, this class offers connection, encouragement, and spiritual growth.
