Questions for Reflection

Each day as you read or listen to the Gospels, take time to ponder these questions. You may want to journal your thoughts.

Consider significant words or phrases along with any questions that may arise as you read. Include any thoughts about where you sense resistance or uncertainty as you read.

➔ Before you begin:

1. What do you hope to experience as you read the Gospels? Write a brief prayer asking God to guide you along the way and teach you what He wants you to know.

2. What do you know to be true about Jesus today?

➔ Daily Reflection Questions:

1. How did you experience Jesus today?

2. Did you learn something new in today's passages?

3. What challenged you or made you feel resistance today?

4. What are your questions, surprises, and/or epiphanies in today's reading?

If you would like to have a book/journal in-hand to help guide you through reading the Gospels, this resource is helpful. You do not have to use this book. Feel free to use your own journal. If you'd like to order this one, you can purchase on Amazon or your favorite book store!
